About This Document

This Trusty Estate Binder accompanies our estate plan and provides a record of valuables we have assigned to our heirs. It was created using the Trusty app and includes details such as the location of each item, its approximate value, relevant records, and where appropriate, video messages I have recorded.

It is intended as a practical guide to assist our heirs in understanding what we have set aside for them and to make the process of transferring these items as straightforward as possible. It should be read in connection with our formal estate planning documents, but it does not replace them.

Cars

Q5 Sportsback Audi

Details

Year: 2024

Key Features: It features a signature sloping coupe-like roofline, standard Quattro all-wheel drive, and an updated 10.1-inch MMI touch display with wireless smartphone integration.

Description: This luxury "coupe SUV" blends the elevated ride height of a crossover with a sportier, more aggressive silhouette to prioritize style alongside German engineering.

Additional Details: I chose this car because that deep forest green reminded me of the childhood camping trips where we'd get lost in the redwoods, and I wanted a vehicle that felt like a sophisticated "thank you" to my younger self for finally making it.

i5 BMW

Details

Year: 2024

Key Features: It features the expansive BMW Curved Display with AirConsole in-car gaming and a rear-mounted motor producing 335 horsepower for a 0–60 mph sprint in 5.7 seconds.

Description: This all-electric luxury sedan redefines the business class with a minimalist, tech-forward interior and a striking "Sharknose" front fascia that maintains BMW's athletic heritage.

Additional Details: I was drawn to this car because it felt like a quiet bridge between two worlds. It has the same classic silhouette that made me fall in love with driving as a kid, but the silent electric powertrain makes it feel like I'm finally gliding through the future I used to imagine.

Details

Year: 2022

Key Features: Powered by a 3.7-liter twin-turbo flat-six engine producing 640 horsepower, it is capable of 0-60 mph acceleration in just 2.6 seconds. It features standard carbon-ceramic brakes (PCCB) identified by the yellow calipers and signature center-lock wheels.

Description: This range-topping 911 is distinguished by its wider body, active aerodynamic rear wing, and side air intakes that feed the intercoolers. It is widely regarded as the ultimate "daily supercar," offering hypercar performance with the comfort and usability of a luxury tourer.

Additional Details: Dad picked this up via European Delivery in Leipzig. I remember the Autobahn run on the way to Munich where we hit 180 mph effortlessly—it felt like the car was just waking up, while I was white-knuckling the passenger door handle.

Assets Wished to Victoria Chen

Diamond Tennis Bracelet Tiffany & Co.

Wish

Victoria Chen

Wish Timeline: On a Specific Date

Handover Date: 13 April, 2028

Additional Wishes: Gifted to me on our 20th wedding anniversary. We were in New York for the weekend and went to the 5th Avenue flagship 'just to look.' I remember the sales associate brought out champagne, and you insisted I try the yellow gold because it warmed my skin tone better than the platinum.

Birkin 30 Hermès

Wishes

Victoria Chen

Wish Timeline: On a Specific Date
Handover Date: 13 April, 2028
Additional Wishes: I bought this at the Faubourg Saint-Honoré store in Paris. I had been on the wish list for two years, and the sales associate finally pulled me aside into a private room to show me this 'fresh from the atelier' box.

Details

Type: Handbag
Description: The Birkin 30 is the most popular size for daily use, offering a perfect balance of capacity and portability. The "Gold on Gold" configuration is considered a "Holy Grail" neutral in the Hermès community, serving as a cornerstone piece that retains its structure and value exceptionally well over time.
Key Features: This bag is crafted from Togo leather (known for its durability and defined pebble grain) in the classic "Gold" colorway, featuring signature white contrast stitching. It is finished with Gold-Plated Hardware (GPHW), which complements the warm tones of the leather.
